

Tim Mulkey was called to be Jackson Memorial's Director of Music Ministries in September 2012. He grew up, the son of a Southern Baptist Preacher, in Las Vegas, NV where they moved to start a new church. Tim was saved at the age of 7 and felt God's calling into the music ministry at 17.

He studied music in college, then graduated with a Business Degree, was commissioned as an officer in the Army, and took his music ministry with him wherever he was sent. He has been in Music Ministry of one form or another for over 30 years, yet has remained current in today's worship trends.

Tim leads our Worship combining hymns and contemporary worship songs, utilizing a choir and various instruments, with a heart focused on God and a desire to bring the congregation to His throne.

He and his wife, Dawn, have five children (all out of the house) and reside in nearby Suffolk.

