MISSIONARY GLEANINGS

PBA COUNTS ITS BLESSINGS

On April 23 PBA held its 2019 SPRING CELEBRATION at Calvary Baptist Church. The special choir was the “Joyful Sounds” and the focal honoree was Don Carter for his 30 years of leadership to the choir and to the churches he served. Others who received Certificates of Appreciation:

1. Calvary Baptist Church and Staff for hosting the 2019 Spring Meeting and maintaining the PBA Tidewater Transportation Office.
2. Collinswood Baptist Church and Staff for allowing the PBA office to be located in their facility.
3. Port Norfolk Baptist Church and Staff for allowing the Airline PBA Office items to be stored there.
4. Mike and Brenda Smith were recognized for their unique leadership role with multiple mission emphases.
5. Leslie McMillan, our Office Manager was recognized for her serving as the glue that holds the PBA together.
6. John Carpenter, PBA Associational Missionary was recognized for his leadership and hospitality in welcoming new staff.

Numerous “popcorn” blessings were also shared. The attendance was the largest in my memory for a Spring Meeting. Thanks to you Jackie Phillips and your Annual Planning Committee. I would love to see us break a hundred at the Fall PBA Meeting!

Finally, I want to commend the speaker Melvin Jiggetts, Pastor of Churchland North---now called “The Land.” He brought an exciting message from Proverbs about God’s blessings. Also, I want to thank the Joyful Sounds Choir and their new Director, Jackie Forehand Phillips. They are always a treat. I especially enjoyed the songs with more rhythm.

I am working with Scott and David for a special program on Monday May 13 at 12:30 p.m. for the Dutch luncheon at Dennis's Spaghetti & Steak House, (3356 Western Branch Blvd) in the private dining room. I have 2 programs and I'm not sure which will be a better fit for the date. I wish to thank Joe from Mercy Drops for the April program.

ASSISTED LIVING HOME HAS A NEED

A local assisted living home has a desire to have a volunteer bring a devotional or "sermonette" on Sunday afternoons, similar to what we already do at Emily Green.

The home is located in the Deep Creek area of Chesapeake. If you have a desire to do the worship, play music, or sing a special, please contact me with your interest.
