For those of you giving electronically to JMBC – Did you know that when you link your giving to a debit or credit card that the church pays a fee to the issuing bank? If you link your electronic giving to your checking account number, the church does not have to pay a fee, and all of your gift will go to JMBC. Please consider this.

Fall is the starting time to apply for scholarships for college and workforce training! Did you know there are even scholarships and contests for elementary and middle school students? While some scholarships may have a modest pay-out, every scholarship can be listed as an award on a resume' or a student activity list for college and trade school acceptance. Awards bring more awards! Enter scholarships and the age range you are looking for into a search engine like Google to get started. (Ex: scholarships for middle school students) Some deadlines are early fall, and if you've missed a deadline, you can note it for next year. There are many free scholarship search engines on the internet. This is a good link to get started: <https://www.bankrate.com/loans/student-loans/scholarship-search-engines/>. If you would like free college or workforce training advice, Elizabeth Harris is glad to help. Contact her at eharris44@gmail.com or 757-235-1680 to leave a voice mail.

A Night in Bethlehem ~ a Christ-centered event for families of all ages. Literally, we step back in time as the Fellowship Hall is transformed, complete with the night sky and Bethlehem Marketplace shops abuzz with townspeople talking about Jesus' birth. Families visit shops and are told about Jesus as they work together to complete an activity. It truly is a special time for all, church family and guests alike. Are you ready to open up our doors and share Jesus with the community this December?

For more information, contact Mary Terwilliger at 757-484-5568 or m.terwilliger@jacksonmemorial.org.
